

Country	Capital	Greeting
France	Paris	Bonjour
Spain	Madrid	Hola
Germany	Berlin	Guten Tag
Italy	Rome	Ciao
Hungary	Budapest	Szia
Bulgaria	Sofia	Dobry den

Books to keep an eye out for . . .

DID YOU KNOW:

Europe is believed to be named after Europa, a Phoenician princess from Greek mythology.

Key Vocabulary

Country	A nation with its own government, occupying a particular territory.
Continents	There are 7 in the world: Africa, Antarctica, Asia, Australia, Europe, North and South America.
Borders	A line separating 2 countries.
Climate Zones	Are conceptual manifestation of different climates that exist in our world.
Euro	Official currency of 19 of the 27 countries.
Physical features	Are naturally occurring features on the Earth i.e. rivers, mountains and seas.
Human features	Are the features caused/created by humans i.e. cities, towns, dams and roads.

Don't forget to keep an eye out for the beautiful wall art on the stairs. It might just help you.

