

Knowledge Organiser - World's Kitchen

Key Vocabulary

continent - one of the world's main continuous expanses of land culture - the ideas, customs, and social behaviour of a particular people or society diversity - when many different cultures live within a society cuisine - a style or method of cooking, often associated with a particular country or region

Fair Trade - trade between companies in developed countries and producers in developing countries in which fair prices are paid to the producers sustainability - avoiding using too many natural resources in order to maintain an ecological balance

Key Facts

- The seven continents of the world are Africa, Asia, Antarctica, Australia, North America, South America and Europe
- Many foods are imported into our country - this means that they are not grown here
- The distance between where something is grown, to where it is eaten, is often referred to as 'food miles'
- Over the last 100 years, the food habits in Britain have changed for various reasons: the introduction of refrigeration, the impact of war and immigration, the change of people's working habits and lifestyles, the development of technology and the impact of the media

Key People

Kate Malone - a British studio potter and ceramic artist. She is known for her large sculptural vessels and rich, bright glazes.

